“Welcome to a brilliant and generous artist who has already enlarged the landscape of American Fiction. THERE THERE is a comic vision haunted by profound sadness. Tommy Orange is a new writer with an old heart.” — Louise Erdrich, Birchbark Books

One of the Best Books of the Year — The Washington Post, NPR, Time, San Francisco Chronicle, The Boston Globe, GQ, Buzzfeed, BookPage, Publishers Weekly, Library Journal, Kirkus Reviews

About the author

Tommy Orange is a graduate from the MFA program at the Institute of American Indian Arts. He is a 2014 MacDowell Fellow, and a 2016 Writing by Writers Fellow. He is an enrolled member of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma. He was born and raised in Oakland and currently lives in Angels Camp, California.

About the book

Tommy Orange’s wondrous and shattering novel follows twelve characters from Native communities: all traveling to the Big Oakland Powwow, all connected to one another in ways they may not yet realize.
